

A Little Trouble

A Cassidy Adventure Novel

by Kelly Rysten

---

Book Description

Kaitlyn Elizabeth Michaels is a ten pound bundle of cuteness with bright blue eyes, a halo of blonde curls and a smile that people just cannot ignore. She is new to the world and wants to get her hands on anything she can reach, which is anything she gets remotely close to. People are drawn to her cuteness but usually leave with fewer belongings. What can Rusty and Cassidy do to curtail their sticky-fingered baby? At first it was entertaining and Cassidy learned the location of every lost and found desk in town, but when Katie meets Macy McNair the nice, old man connects in a way that brings deadly trouble to the Michaels family.

About the Author

Kelly Rysten was born in Rockledge, Florida and moved to Las Cruces, New Mexico at the age of four. Her childhood was spent in the New Mexico State University Library, the horse stables, and the hills between Las Cruces and the Organ Mountains. She met her husband, Gary, in a backpacking class and the two have backpacked and camped all over southern New Mexico and Arizona. These days Kelly enjoys writing and geocaching. She has published seven Cassidy Adventures and a standalone adventure romance novel titled Geogirl. Kelly is also a frequent contributor to FTF Geocacher Magazine. She always has a Cassidy book in the works so stay tuned!
