

Tell Me, Tell Me, What You See

by Jim Howard & Paula Welsh-Howard
Illustrated by Vanessa Knight

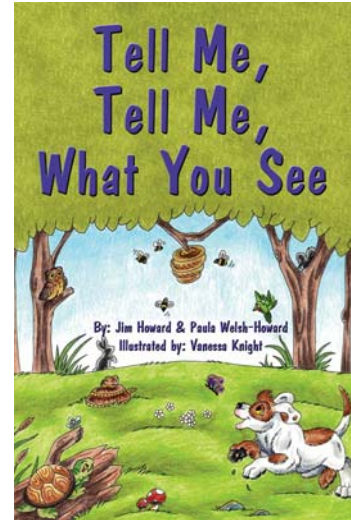

Book Description

Do you ever wonder what children who are almost too young to talk really see in the world? Tell Me, Tell Me, What You See answers that question. This book will both charm and create wonder with children and parents alike.

About the Authors

Jim Howard, a bankruptcy paralegal, has had a life-time love of nature and learning that he developed while growing up in Montana. He enjoys traveling, golf and volunteering as a Cub Scout leader. He lives in Denver, Colorado with his wife, son, three dogs and two cats. This is his first book.

Paula Welsh-Howard, met Jim Howard while working for the same employer and was also a bankruptcy paralegal. When she was single she traveled by herself to Europe and toured Europe for 5 months. She enjoys writing, singing, traveling, and being with her family. She developed a love of nature and the wilderness while growing up in Colorado. This is her first book.
